I understand that the workload may be demanding and more than I am used to and that I will have homework to complete on a weekly basis. I understand that, if I feel or the instructor feels I am struggling or need extra help, the instructor will work with me one-on-one as needed to insure my success in the class. I agree to follow the class procedures as outlined in the syllabus for each class. In addition, I agree to notify the instructor should I need to be absent for any reason and complete any assignments missed in a timely fashion as agreed upon with the instructor. I  do  do not wish my work in the class to be used anonymously in future classes as examples.
